

Miranda Iwataki

Miranda Iwataki is the one-person Development shop for TriCity Family Services in Geneva, IL, where she is responsible all resource development activities for the organization, as well as program marketing and supervision of the volunteer auxiliary. Miranda was previously at Deborah's Place in Chicago, IL, where she worked her way up from Development Associate, to Development Coordinator, and finally to Grants and Contracts Manager before departing to join TriCity Family Services in 2005. She has been an AFP Member since 2005 and enjoys being a well-rounded fundraising generalist who gets to do it all from database management, to grant writing, to special events, to annual giving, to major donor solicitation. She holds a Bachelors degree in English from North Central College.
