

Anita Knazze

Anita Knazze is Director of Corporate and Special Events for Girl Scouts of Greater Chicago and Northwest Indiana. Ms. Knazze is responsible for directing and planning special events designed to raise significant revenues and cultivation events that raise public awareness and participation in the organization. She has seventeen years of senior-level experience in effective, comprehensive resource development which includes an extensive track record in corporate and foundation support, government grants, major gifts and special events spanning two decades with Girl Scouts.

Prior to her current role, Anita held the position of Assistant Director of Advancement, Girl Scouts of Chicago. Ms. Knazze earned her Bachelor of Arts in English at Loyola University.

Anita and her husband Kevin are the proud parents of three children and reside in Chicago.