

Jim Rosenberg

Jim Rosenberg serves as Vice President, Financial Resource Development for the Jewish United Fund / Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago (JUF). An executive with JUF since 2000, Jim oversees a number of areas within the overall development area in order to facilitate greater coordination and execution of the organization's various income streams.

Specifically, Jim spends his time focusing on areas including annual campaign, donor upgrade and stability, corporate giving, management of JUF's development officer program, oversight for JUF's Centennial Campaign, and fostering JUF's organization-wide collaborative development effort known as Extreme FRD.

Previously, Jim worked at the Jewish Federations in Detroit and Cleveland. Jim has a bachelor's degree from the University of Illinois and an MSW from University of Michigan. Jim lives in Evanston, Illinois with his wife Deborah and their three daughters.