

Bill Silverstein

Bill Silverstein is the co-owner of Beal Properties, a family-owned real estate company that owns and operates multi-family apartments in and around the Chicago metropolitan area.

In addition to his professional responsibilities, Bill, an attorney by training, spends a significant portion of his days and evenings serving in leadership roles in a number of volunteer organizations, most notably in the Jewish community, with a special focus on fundraising. He is currently a Vice Chair on the Board of the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago, Chair of the Federation's End of Year Annual Campaign, and Chair of Federation's Facilities Corporation. In addition, Bill volunteers for a number of other organizations both within and outside the Jewish community.

Bill lives in Highland Park, Illinois with his wife and their three children.
