

Jennifer Hendrick

Advocate Illinois Masonic Medical Center

Jennifer Hendrick is the Director of Development at Advocate Illinois Masonic Medical Center in Chicago. The Advocate Charitable Foundation is the philanthropic division of Advocate Health Care, the largest healthcare system in Illinois, which was recently recognized as the number one healthcare system in the country in clinical health outcomes. Jennifer is responsible for helping raise $30 million annually for the Advocate Charitable Foundation in support of their hospital sites of care. She is currently helping lead efforts to significantly increase philanthropic support of Advocate Illinois Masonic Medical Center in the heart of Chicago's Lakeview neighborhood as they embark upon a campaign.

In her nine year development career, Jennifer has served on five separate and successful Advocate Health care philanthropic teams. She has also served as the Director of Cancer Research Programs for the Cancer Therapy and Research Center (San Antonio, TX), and prior to that as the Fundraising Consultant and Capital Campaign Director for StreetFund, LLC (San Antonio, TX).

Jennifer holds a Bachelors of Art from the University of Kansas. She is a longtime member of the Association of Fundraising Professionals and has served on the Ronald McDonald Charities Care Mobile Committee and the Chicago Southland Chamber of Commerce. Jennifer has volunteered at various Chicago charities, including Big Brothers Big Sister, Girl Scouts of America and Gilda's Club. She has also attended and participated in multiple AFP national conferences and seminars.
