

Dan Winter Biography

Dan Winter is the Midwest Regional Director – Midwest for the World Wildlife Fund, He joined WWF in early 2009 with more than 20 years of fundraising experience for organizations engaged in conservation, disease prevention and research, and human service, both local and national in scope. His role at WWF is to raise revenue from individuals throughout the Midwest to support WWF's work in over 100 countries around the world. Dan holds a B.A. in International Relations from the University of Delaware and a J.D. from the Boston University School of Law. Dan studied abroad in Vienna, Austria and has traveled in Europe, South America and Central and Southeast Asia. Dan serves as Treasurer of the Chicago Council on Planned Giving; in addition to his service as Vice Chair of the Program Committee for AFP Chicago.