

William Nalley currently holds the Director of Development position with Aspire of Chicago. He has over 21 years of experience building philanthropic support for organizations in the arts, education, health care and social service sectors. William has been a member of AFP Chicago since 2011, serving as a peer mentor and participating in the Midwest Conference on Philanthropy. He joined the AFP Chicago board in 2020. William holds a Master's in Public Administration with a concentration in Non-Profit Management from the University of Illinois at Chicago, and a Bachelor of Arts in English from the University of Iowa.