Liza Lundholm Sury, J.D., CFRE, is Director of Development and Communications at DuPage Health Coalition. After shifting away from a successful career as a trial attorney, Liza turned her attention to school and community leadership and organization.

Liza has served in development management roles in education, housing and healthcare. She is proud to have dedicated herself to nonprofits providing equitable access to all the things that make the Chicago area such a wonderful place to live and thrive.

Liza is an AFP Global and AFP Chicago member, an at-large board member for Partnership for Educational Progress in Glen Ellyn, and Vice-President of West Suburban Philanthropic Network. She loves to travel and see live music and theater with her husband and two daughters.
