

Tim Hammerly
Director of Institutional Advancement
<mailto:mthammerly@oschool.org>

Tim is the Director of Institutional Advancement at the Sonia Shankman Orthogenic School (O-School). In this role, he provides guidance and oversight to the O-School's fundraising, communications, marketing, and public relations strategies. Previously, Tim served as the Director of Individual and Foundation Giving at The Global Foodbanking Network, the North American Major Gifts Officer for Bethlehem University in the Holy Land, the Director of the Give Hope Campaign for the Chicago Kroc Center, and the Director of Strategic Gifts and Initiatives at The Salvation Army Metropolitan Division. Tim brings over fifteen years of experience within the non-profit sector as a direct program provider, administrator, communicator, and fundraiser. Tim is originally from Peoria, Illinois. He graduated from Bradley University with degrees in Philosophy, Business Management, and Economics. He has served on AFP Chicago Awards Luncheon Committee since 2015 and joined the AFP Chicago board in 2020.