

John Huebler, CFRE

John Huebler, CFRE, is a Senior Major Gifts Officer at the Illinois Institute of Technology. He works with Illinois Tech alumni and donors on the west coast to secure their philanthropic investment in the university's scholarship and capital initiatives. In addition to his role on the chapter board, he serves on the Diversity and Inclusion Committee for AFP International. He has also served in leadership roles with two AFP chapters in Michigan. His introduction to AFP was in receiving his chapter's Chamberlain Scholarship in the first year of his development career. John has previously worked as a major gift officer at the University of Illinois at Chicago, Grand Valley State University, and Michigan State University. He holds a bachelor's degree from Michigan State, and a master of public administration/non-profit management degree from Grand Valley.
