

Teresa Battaglia

Teresa Battaglia is the Donor Relations Specialist for the Archdiocese of Chicago, focusing on special events, donor recognition and special initiative mailings. She holds a bachelor degree in history from DePaul University and is active on the DePaul University Alumni Board. Teresa is a native of Chicago and enjoys strength and conditioning training and spending time with friends and family.