

Jeanelle Chang

Jeanelle Chang is a Development professional with over a decade of non-profit experience at diverse NPOs including arts organizations, cultural institutions, health and medical association, social service entities and higher education. Currently, she is the Deputy Director, Development at the Obama Foundation. Prior to this, Jeanelle has executed a breadth of Development skills through multiple fundraising avenues at the University of Chicago's Arts + Public Life/ the Arts Block with Theaster Gates, Chicago Sinfonietta, SkyART, Art Institute of Chicago, Asian Art Museum, AsianWeek Foundation, and the International Anesthesia Research Society. This has equipped her to lead Fundraising 101 workshops for students, emerging professionals, grassroots organizations, and Obama Foundation programs. Most recently, Jeanelle was a Co-Chair for the 2020 AADO/CASE Conference on Diverse Philanthropy and Leadership, and helped launch AFP Chicago IDEA Asian Pacific Islander Affinity (API) Group. She is a proud member of AADO, the Rooted Collaborative: a Global Community for BIWOC Fundraisers, and Women of Color in Fundraising and Philanthropy (WOC). In 2016, Jeanelle was awarded the Young NonProfit Professional of the Year. She holds an M.A. in Arts Administration and Policy from the School of the Art Institute of Chicago, and a B.A. in Visual Arts from the University of Chicago, San Diego.